Edmundson happened to notice it and smothered it by throwing dust on the Considerable complaint is made on account of the breaking of the hose that frequently occurs at fires and sometimes prevents the blaze from being extinguished until after much damage has been done. The breakage, Chief Nicholson says, is caused by the fact that the hose is used by the sewer flushing gang and is used so carelessly that it is only a short time until the hose is rendered nearly worthless.

Four fine bronze piliars arrived yesterday and are being placed on the abutments on the north and east sides of the government building. They were made by the firm of J. L. Van Brunt Finally Elected President of the City Conneil.

THEN THE DEADLOCK WAS CONTINUED

Interesting Report of Last Night's Meeting - How the Presiding Officer Was Named - Situation Unchanged in Other Respects-News Notes.

The city council met last evening. A little more progress was made in electing officers than at any previous meeting, and this was made possible by the action of Alderman Jennings, who left the democratic ranks long enough to vote for Alderman Van Brunt for president of the council. On the second ballot Van Brunt was elected by a vote of five to three, Goies voting for Brown and Van Brunt and Brown both passing. Attempts were also made to elect a poll tax collector.

Attorney N. M. Pusey's claim for $1,400 attorney's fees, which had been lying in the hands of the city clerk for over a year, after some discussion was referred to the judiciary committee with instructions to report at the next meeting.

W. H. M. Pusey addressed the council with reference to the trouble he had had over his sidewalk at the corner of Broadway and Pearl street. He wanted an amendment made to the ordinances providing that no sidewalas should be constructed on Broad-way, Main or Pearl streets save of artificial or natural stone or hard burned brick. His amendment was laid on the table. On mo the oricks which had been removed by his man before he was stopped in the work by the authorities, and the city engineer was instructed to put a waterway in at the

of $675 for attorney fees for his services in the Fairmount park litization was presented, and on motion he was allowed $575.

A petition of the property owners asking that the terraces on the east side of Park avenue from Pomona avenue to Fairmont park be graded down so as to allow the regulation width of sidewalks to be put in was granted. The marshal was ordered to serve notices on property owners in Williams' first addition and Hyatt's subdivision requiring them to bring their property up to grade. The city engineer was instructed to put Angle avenue in good repair and to put in a culvert

Daniel Pritchard, a wealthy and well known resident of the eastern end of Pottawattamie county, was brought before the commissioners of insanity yesterday for an examination. He had been found wandering about the woods not far from his home in Wainut. He is said to be worth about $20,000, and one feature of his insanity was the notion that every one he saw intended to get his money. To prevent this he would carry a large amount of his wealth around with him in a valise where he went. When he was found wan-dering through the woods his valise con-tained about $1,200 in notes and $180 in cash. After an examination he was taken to St. Bernard's hospital for treatment.

City Council Meeting. The city council succeeded in getting a quorum together soon after 9 o'clock last evening. The most important business transacted was the introduction of a new fire limit ordinance, which was referred. The fire limit, as defined by the new ordinance, includes the territory between the north line of O street and the south line of M street, between the Union Pacific right of way and the west line of the alley between Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth streets. Also the territory between the alleys on each side of Twenty-fourth street as far north as the south line of L street.

The reports of the poundmaster, chief of police, cattle inspector and building in-spector for May were read and accepted. A number of unimportant communications were received and referred to committees.

STRUCK ON HIS HEAD.

An Italian Laborer Instantly Killed by Jumping from a Car.

Licoria Paternostro, an Italian laborer was instantly killed at 6: 45 o'clock yesterday morning while attempting to alight from Twenty-fourth street motor between N and M streets in South Omaha. He was one of a gang of Italians who had gone down from Omaha to work for Hugh Murphy on the Twenty-sixth street paving. Others of the party got off at L street, but Paternostro stayed on and jumped off backwards while the train was moving rapidly. He struck the pavement on his head and his neck was broken, resulting in instant death. His body was taken to Breiver's undertaking rooms where Coroner Maul held an inquest. The testimony showed that the dead man did not attempt to signal the conductor to stop, and the jury returned a verdict exonerating the motor company from blame. Francis Goodail was the conductor and Nels Johnson motorman of the train. Paternostro came to this country about a year ago from Nanies, Italy, where he has a wife and four children. He lived at Twentieth and Poppleton avenue in Omaha.

Inquest Over the Motor Victims. A coroner's jury beid an inquest yesterday afternoon on the podies of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cole, who were killed Sunday by being thrown from a Council Bluffs motor car on the Douglas street bridge.
